

Dear Sirs,

In my opinion the Constituency of East should be re-instated. The eastern region of the country has seen the largest increase in population since 2009 – the last time Constituency of East existed. Census figures support this.

I believe in order that there be a reasonable equality of representation between constituencies, that the Constituency of East be reintroduced.

I strongly recommend same.

Eithne Coughlan